

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW / COVID-19 UPDATE

First and foremost, we hope that you and your loved ones are, and continue to be, healthy and safe.

With that said, information regarding COVID-19 and in response to this unprecedented event continues to mount. The sheer volume of information and associated amount of uncertainty continues to flood all media and social channels. As your trusted advisor, NEMR is here to provide you with the information needed to make critical employment and business decisions.

State Specific Information Regarding Employees & COVID-19

The links below are pertinent to you and your employees. If your state is not listed and you would like additional information about COVID-19 in your state, please contact your NEMR Total HR representative.

Emergency Families First Coronavirus Response Act (H.R. 6201)

The link below is from a NAPEO-affiliated national law firm and synthesizes the current legislation proposed by the U.S. House of Representatives, awaiting approval by the U.S. Senate. This legislation has NOT been approved and may change several times – if approved at all. NEMR is providing this information as it happens and will continue to provide information as the situation evolves.*

As this situation evolves, NEMR is here to advise you and your teams. We will continue to monitor any regulations that impact your team and will execute any actionable items necessary.

Finally, NEMR Total HR continues to operate at full staffing levels to support you and your teams. For the safety of the NEMR team and to #flattenthecurve, NEMR will be enacting our business continuity and remote workforce plan. Our team will begin to work remotely effective as early as some point this week with the intention to return to our Marlton offices prior to April 6th, 2020. Operations will continue as normal with complete connectivity.

Please stay healthy and safe and we look forward to “seeing” everyone soon!

NAPEO is the National Association of Professional Employer Organizations of which NEMR Total HR, as your PEO/ASO, has been a member of since 2003.*
